

The FCC needs to do
a far better job of ensuring broadcasting
fairness in this country! Sinclair Broadcasting's
anti-Kerry film,
Stolen Hour, airing
just before the presidential elections is a glaring example of blatant misuse of public trust.

The FCC is complicit
in handing over
public rights to diversity and fairness to ever-spreading and more partisan media corporations.

In the name of our Constitution rights
and your integrity,
I urge you to reverse this process.

Sincerely,

Dave Henderson
